

Welcome to Gayton!

A sea of blue clad volunteers engulfed 45 Northside Richmond children in Jesus' love this past Saturday!

Last Saturday, Gayton Baptist Church led the Spirit of Baseball Camp for the sixth year. Divided into six teams by age, participants were instructed in batting, base running, bunting, pitching, throwing, infield, and outfield skills.

Over 100 people from not only Gayton Baptist but the Northside Outreach Center, Abundant Life Church of Christ, the US Army, the Chester Kiwanis, Gamma Psi Fraternity and others volunteered to show the kids a great day of baseball, hot dogs, and fun.

Each participant received a hat, shirt, ball, glove, and a Bible at no charge. As you might guess, much planning, thought and time goes into the camp. Fields are scheduled. Volunteers are recruited and screened. Plans are laid out well in advance and flyers are circulated through businesses, schools, and community centers.

Do we make a difference? Is it all worth it?

Well, just ask 10 year old Dallas S. of Richmond's North Side.

A fourth grader, Dallas was listening intently as Brother Gary Foreman of Abundant Life delivered a thought-provoking lunch time message about Jesus. When Gary called forward those who wished to make a decision for Christ or simply to pray for a moment, Dallas answered the call.

Seeing that Dallas wanted to talk, Butch Johnson, Director of the Northside Outreach Center, offered to speak with him. Butch asked Dallas if he understood the point of Gary's demonstration. Assured that he did, Butch then asked Dallas if he wished to accept Jesus. And he did. But, that isn't the end of the story... (continued next page)

It turns out that Dallas' mom was standing nearby. Butch introduced himself and found out that she had been hoping for something just like this! Because she must work on Sundays, Dallas' mom is unable to take him to church. Butch made the offer to take Dallas to church by bus the next day.

After a great experience in Sunday school, Dallas is excited to keep going and to get involved with the Urban Rangers and other programs at the NOC.

We can only believe that a change in Dallas has happened and he is beginning an incredible life in Christ!
